Alas como cuchillos (Otra Rama) (Spanish Edition) Catalina Kühne

"No es fácil vivir con un pájaro dentro del pecho". Así inicia Alas como cuchillos, una historia sobre el dolor de la pérdida, los cambios y transiciones que implica la adolescencia y cómo sería vivir con un mirlo negro instalado entre las costillas. Cuando Alonso, el protagonista, siente que la vida ya no puede ponerse más difícil, una extraña compañía lo obliga a indagar qué pasa dentro de sí, qué es eso que duele o molesta tanto. La autora nos "cose" el libro al pecho, sus personajes y conflictos, con un hilo muy delicado, transparente, imposible de cortar. Una sola advertencia para leer Alas como cuchillos: no hacerlo sobre una almohada de plumas; nunca se sabe.

"It's not easy living with a bird in your chest". This is how Wings like knives begins; a story about pain, loss, changes, and transitions that adolescence implies and how it would be to live with a blackbird between your ribs.
