Conflict: Resolution and Prevention (The conflict series) John W. Burton

The first part of a set of four volumes which seeks to provide an historical and theoretical perspective for consideration of theory and practice in conflict resolution and prevention. The authors put forward an adequate theory of behaviour which they contend is needed to provide a basis for the analysis and resolution of conflict. The other volumes cover human needs theory and readings and practices in management and resolution in addition to a detailed description of the facilitated conflict resolution process.
