Hitler: analisi di una mente criminale (Psicologie) (Italian Edition) Riccardo Dalle Luche, Luca Petrini
Con questa monografia Riccardo Dalle Luche e Luca Petrini si sono posti un obiettivo da far tremare i polsi: riassumere, approfondire e giudicare tutte le teorie psicologiche e psicopatologiche che hanno tentato di "spiegare" la mente di Adolf Hitler. Questi studi, frutto delle ricerche di psichiatri statunitensi ed europei, si accompagnano inevitabilmente alla storiografia sul Führer e il nazismo, in quanto le vicende del Terzo Reich rinviano ad un "nocciolo" irrazionale che pervade sia la figura del dittatore tedesco, sia l'entourage di cui si circondò, sia l'intero apparato del nazionalsocialismo. La vita privata di Hitler è segnata da episodi di indubbia rilevanza psichiatrica e si intreccia con quella, altrettanto tumultuosa, della leadership del suo movimento: un connubio micidiale che non solo ha prodotto un regime "delirante" (a dispetto del vasto consenso popolare che l'ha sorretto per dodici anni), ma che ancora oggi si segnala come caso estremo di follia al potere. Muovendosi agilmente tra biografia, affresco storico, rievocazione aneddotica e interpretazione scientifica, il saggio di Dalle Luche e Petrini compie un piccolo grande miracolo: esporre in modo nitido l'interiorità misteriosa di un uomo e di un movimento che hanno tragicamente segnato la storia del Ventesimo secolo.
