Las enseñanzas del profesor: Grupo Atlacomulco. De Hank González a Peña Nieto (Biografía) (Spanish Edition) José Martínez

Estas páginas trazan el perfil de una de las figuras más conspicuas de México, personaje imprescindible para comprender los usos del poder durante la segunda mitad del siglo xx en el país.

Fallecido en 2001, Carlos Hank González fue no solamente un hábil político hecho a la medida del viejo PRI y un funcionario diestro en el arte de la supervivencia, sino también el creador de un imperio económico apoyado en una vasta red de influencias que, en cierto momento, le permitieron desafiar al Estado.

A través de la reveladora biografía de este hombre, el periodista José Martínez ofrece el retrato cabal de una época marcada por las tensiones políticas y los juegos de poder.
