To keep school libraries relevant, their physical spaces need to be reinvented to mirror 21st-century learning models. This book will enable everyone from school librarians and principals to district-level administrators, architects, and interior planners of school library spaces to reconceptualize school libraries.

- Describes space concepts to support personalized learning and guided inquiry
- Addresses the key subject of how to best adapt the library for technology, virtual learners, and patrons seeking to use smart devices
- Spotlights the new concepts and learning applications that are necessary to make school libraries more effective, especially at the middle and high school levels
- Examines how to merchandise a new library brand and promote revised roles for school librarians to reverse the trend of marginalization of school libraries
