Excerpt from Just for Two: A Collection of Recipes, Designed for Two Persons

Recipes designed for small families are rare, and yet there are thousands of wives in our cities who cook for only two. It follows that they must either cut down large recipes found in the ordinary cook book, which can rarely be done successfully, or they must cook the full amount with resulting waste. During my experience of keeping house in a flat for my husband and myself, I have tried to cook with economy with the help of my large cook book, and I have both wasted and experimented much and have gradually compiled for my own use a book of proved recipes, many of which have been given me by friends who have compounded and proved them. I now publish the book, believing that it will fill a long felt need. It has been my aim in preparing the book to have it contain rules for making many dainty and delicious dishes not often found in cook books.
