Softly Sweetly Tenderly Robert Stetson

My name is Holly Stone, and I'm wrapped up in my studies with my biggest worry being my mid-terms and finals. I know that the life after college has to be more meaningful. Yes, I'm ready for a man. He is a ruggedly handsome person with a sparkling smile and soft eyes. He has an aura that reeks of power, and yet he has an outward ambiance of one who is gentle and loving. As I approach him, my knees feel a little shaky. With that, he puts his hand on mine and smiles at me in a way that says we will be more than friends very soon. I am so hungry for this man. I want him now, but will have to wait until he's ready to go to the next step. I have to let Bob feel as though he's the one driving this relationship. Bob asks, "Have you ever been sailing?"
