The One Watching Jon Cliff

The One Watching In a small Maryland town there is an evil, an evil that has been sleeping in the shadows of the towns notorious Barrens, awakening only to feed upon the souls of the innocent and to look through the eyes of its disciples for the return of his human counterpart. A human so evil that it will finally give him the strength he needs to permanently awaken and summon its followers for preparation of the the night of death. A human so evil it will enable him to rally his forces of evil and plunge Elkton, Maryland into the forever darkness and enable his final attempt at the Black Mass to succeed so he may finally be able to open the gateway into his fathers dimension and release its legionnaire of demons upon the human world so the darkness of hell may reign on Earth forever. Now the human has returned. And the fate of the world rest in the hands Jigalario Volenti an ex monk with a mystical talisman and his new friends, Jack Newman, Barbara Harris and Paul Lightfoot. But even with his new friends Jig's is no longer sure he will be able to stop it. Now all hope for success or failure may have to rest in the return of Elktons long dark secret. A man they thought they had buried away forever. A man called Santos.
