The Final Revolution V. A. Freeman

The young and brilliant computer scientist, David Stone, discovers that his new employer is using his expertise after he spearheaded a breakthrough in protein folding, to engineer the wholesale killing of millions of Chinese and Indian citizens in a preliminary covert plan to mitigate global resource competition. He must fight for his life to expose the deeper conspiracy of killing off a portion of the American population before the company can find and silence him. Under constant pursuit, David leverages his own talents and the efforts of a colorful freelance pilot and the Native American former Green Beret sent to capture him to touch off a cyber-uprising against big business, corporate-run media and his cyber-nemesis hired to stop him. David's revolt launches his ex-employer and their high-level U.S. government handlers on a desperate race to eliminate him and his revolutionaries before they can expose the truth to the world.?
