Mico Millevic is a young man struggling with his past and trying to fulfil the potential of his future. His best mate, Couper, keeps dead people's cremated remains in his driveway and gets into fights with blokes in wheelchairs. His girlfriend, Nina, suffers from severe stomach pains, and refuses to suffer fools. Mico and his friends are lost on a heady, who-cares, throw-up-your-arms-and-scream rollercoaster ride that never seems to stop. Until it does. The Goddamn Bus of Happiness sets a cracking pace with its outrageous episodes, intriguing characters and provocative observations. At once amusing and deeply moving, it speaks honestly about the often ignored vulnerability of young men.
