Brandywine, Delaware, history comes to life through the stories of three generations of women who share a love for literature. Caroline manages a bookstore, serving customers like Richard who struggle financially, while her parents would prefer she marry advantageously. Grace searches for a missing heirloom book with the help of a questionable young man and a dashing suitor. Lillian is encouraged by her brother's mysterious friend to reopen the bookstore in her brother's memory. Will each woman's literature inspired dreams lead her to a man of faith and devotion?
