Samantha Moring stands on a sidewalk in Washington D.C. Four feet away, a man who tormented her and attempted to rape her two years before faces her with a gun in one hand and her 18-month-old son in the other. He's intent on finishing the job this time. In Book 1 of the 1600 Pennsylvania Series, The Knights of 1600 Pennsylvania, Samantha, a freelance writer and investigator, her boyfriend and now husband, Steve, and their conspiracy-nut friend, Kenny, uncovered a conspiracy to change the American political system through assassinations and cover-ups. In the sequel, The Head of the Snake, Steve, Sam, and Kenny find that the danger of their first adventure hasn't ended and the political intrigue has escalated. The conspirators seeking to change the country's policies are pissed; and they're coming after the three with a vengeance. Set in 1974, this thrill ride through alternate history offers action, romance, and enough intrigue for every reader of suspense and conspiracy theorist out there.
