And Then I Had Kids: Encouragement for Mothers of Young Children Susan Alexander Yates

"Susan Alexander Yates understands me! Her honesty and encouragement serve as a dose of perspective and helpful direction for mothers everywhere. If you have young children, you need this book! It promises to equip you to do your best in the high calling of motherhood." Jill Savage, mother of four, author, founder of Hearts at Home

Would you like some encouragement and advice from a mom who has "been there"? When the Yates's twin daughters were born, they joined siblings ages two, four, and seven. Drawing from her experience, Susan offers this helpful guide for parents facing the challenges of raising young children.

And Then I Had Kids will help you handle common struggles such as priorities, discipline, and fatigue. As Susan shares biblical insights and her own humorous stories, you'll be comforted by understanding, refreshed with laughter, and stimulated with ideas to enable this season of life to be one of unique and lasting joy.

"Susan's practical insights, kid-tested advice, and easy-to-read style make this one parenting book that really WORKS! Keep one book in your diaper bag, another in your glove compartment, and a whole case of them in the trunk-you'll want to give a copy to every mom and dad you know!" Jodie Berndt, author of Praying the Scriptures for Your Children

"If you're the mother of young children and are looking for some very honest, practical help with and through this incredible time in your life, and if you're looking for a woman who is serious about integrating thoughtful, biblical wisdom and sensitivity into her role as a mother . . . Susan Yates is the friend you've been looking for." Rebecca Manley Pippert, author of A Heart Like His
