The Greater Truth: Ten Revelations for Living a Good Life Kevin Brown

In the beginning God walked in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve. When the two humans ate the forbidden fruit, God kicked them out of the garden. But is wrath and judgment all there is to the story? Or is there a greater truth within the narrative?

Personal responsibility and accountability are the foundation for understanding the plan God has for us. We need to take ownership of God's calling on our lives and not let others define who we are.

Focusing on the topics of responsibility, purpose, identity, awareness, God's understanding of us, relationships, worship, giving, intimacy, and love, The Greater Truth: Ten Revelations for Living a Good Life offers deep yet pragmatic insight into how embracing these principles can help elevate our lives.

The greater truth is about going deeper to discover those secrets God wants us to know about him and the life he has created for us. Honest and from the heart, this book is for anyone and everyone looking for a deeper understanding of God, written by a layman for the layman.
