Conversaciones: Con ojos del siglo XX (Spanish Edition) Santiago Pedraglio

Este es un libro de testimonios de peruanos del siglo XX presentados en forma de entrevistas. Santiago Pedraglio recolectó a lo largo de estos últimos años diversas historias de peruanos que, desde el más alto cargo de la república, pasando por el ejercicio de las artes y las ciencias, hasta el oficio más humano, regalan enseñanzas que se tienen que contar a las futuras generaciones. Estas historias nos permiten además descubrir el Perú del siglo pasado y cómo cada uno de estos personajes vivió su peruanidad y la construyó a través de sus acciones, profesión, arte u oficio. Entre los entrevistados se encuentran el político Hugo Blanco, el dirigente histórico del APRA Armando Villanueva del Campo, el escritor Oswaldo Reynoso, el sociólogo Julio Cotler, la cocinera Teresa Izquierdo, el pintor Fernando de Szyszlo, entre otros.

Tal como menciona Alejandro Neyra en el prólogo, "Santiago Pedraglio no es aquí un periodista ni mucho menos un reportero. No esperen encontrar historias ocultas, amantes secretos, hijos no reconocidos o acusaciones arteras; o al menos no tantas. Pero queda claro que no ha habido aquí sillón rojo, polígrafo ni un acercamiento sensacionalista al personaje, algo a lo que lamentablemente nos han acostumbrado los medios de comunicación masivos en los últimos años. No es este, pues, un libro de revelaciones periodísticas sino de revelaciones humanas. Las entrevistas de Pedraglio son en realidad conversaciones íntimas en el más puro sentido del término".
