L'economia come scienza sociale e politica (Italian Edition) Paolo Palazzi

Il volume raccoglie una serie di saggi su temi economici e sociopolitici scritti in periodi diversi e indirizzati a un pubblico non specializzato. Loro filo conduttore è il legame fra economia, da una parte, e società, ecologia e politica, dall'altra. L'economia va intesa, secondo l'autore, come una scienza sociale e politica il cui scopo costante è quello di comprendere, o almeno descrivere, relazioni tra persone e non fra cose. Le relazioni umane, e fra queste le relazioni economiche, non sono rappresentabili semplicemente attraverso leggi più o meno immutabili o astratti modelli di logica matematica, ma grazie a un'impostazione multidisciplinare e avendo come punto di riferimento il mondo reale.
