Palacio: novela corta (Spanish Edition) Sergio Gutiérrez Negrón

Un joven recibe un correo electrónico de su esposa, tras dos años de desaparición. Una mujer cumple los deseos irracionales de un viejo ornitólogo japonés abatido por el luto: leerle los diarios de su difunta hija a un salón de pájaros. Una amiga que escucha, desde el margen, atentamente el relato; y una joven trompetista de jazz que lo observa todo desde la tarima. Entre estas coordenadas se entabla una búsqueda en la que la verdad y la imaginación melancólica de los solos se confunden para conformar un panorama torcido, digno de ese presente intempestivo, donde todo es experimentado a segunda mano y a la distancia. "No hay un momento en esta novela que no suene. El palacio que Sergio Gutiérrez Negrón ha construido es el de un hombre poblado de interferencias y ruidos, que intenta poner en pausa los circuitos de la inevitabilidad [...] Una primera novela prometiendo futuros que ya han llegado."
